MEMORANDUM FOR MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES
INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT: Unauthorized Disclosure of Intelligence Information

1. In the course of today's meeting, in executive session, of the United States Intelligence Board, I requested that each member cause within his own Department or Agency an investigation to be conducted of an unauthorized disclosure of intelligence information.

2. This action was taken in conformity with my responsibility under NSCID No. 1, Section 5. This responsibility was further amplified by the memorandum of 26 September 1958 from Mr. Gordon Gray, Special Assistant to the President, which letter was disseminated to the members of USIB on 2 October 1958 as USIB-D-9.2/1. 25X1

4. Accordingly, it is requested that each member cause within his own Department or Agency an investigation to be conducted on this unauthorized disclosure of intelligence information. It is further requested that reports of investigation by each Department be transmitted to me for review and such further action as may be appropriate.
